The Mora County Commission has hired a new county manager, Arturo Marlow. He comes to the county with 22 years of service in the U.S. Air Force as well as experience working for Mora Valley Community Health Services, San Miguel County, and the City of Las Vegas.

He said Mora County government had a lot going for it, but it also has a lot of room for improvement like bring more jobs to the area, so young members of the workforce can relocate to or stay in the area.

"There were a lot of good things, but there's a lot that can be improved upon," he said. "I think with the right leadership and the right guidance, the right people in place, we can make Mora even better than it already is."

Please welcome Arturo to the NM Counties 33 family!

Paint a blade at Annual Conference!

Leave a footprint long after the conference wraps up. Come paint a full sized windmill blade that will be assembled into a large scale public art installation and displayed in the City of Clovis, Curry County. Art stations will be set up at the Clovis Civic Center and Curry County Events Center. A huge thank you to the sponsors and communities for helping!

Candidates in the running for PERA 2019 representing NM counties: Good luck to all!
