

This week we honor all county detention center administrators, officers, and workers! Especially with the challenge of COVID-19, we recognize your continued commitment and professionalism you exemplify in keeping our communities safe and maintaining order while continuing to facilitate daily responsibilities during this trying time. This pandemic has heightened risks that make your job more visible and valued. You put yourself out there on the frontlines and change the lives of those in your custody and care. To us, you will always be “essential!” Thank you!!!

San Miguel County Detention Administrator Matt Elwell gets tested this week for COVID-19
