Deadline coming up to count communities, including minorities and immigrants. New Mexico is one of 30 states currently trailing its 2010 self-response rate, which was a 60% participation rate, the nation’s second-lowest. For our 2020 purpose is to exceed that response rate, while county complete count committees continue to aggressively pivot their outreach strategies in ways to gain more self—re—responses working around COVID—19 restrictions.

As of Monday, 47% of NM households had not yet responded to the census questionnaire. The count determines how $1.45 billion in federal funding is distributed nationwide and how many congressional districts each state gets. Each person not counted could mean a loss of $3,700 per person per year. Just a 1% undercount could mean NM loses $81 billion in federal funds over the next 10 years. Dollars go to Medicare, Medicaid, SNAP, schools, hospitals, fire stations, road repairs, and child programs. Let Medicaid, SNAP, schools, hospitals, fire stations, road repairs, and child programs.
