Wildland Urban Fire Summit Highlights Day 1

With a deeper watering, we can only expect that the next fire season is going to be really active," stated NM EMRND Secretary Sarah Cottrell Propst. “Regardless of our preparations, we can’t suppress our way out of wildfire. We have to find ways to co-exist with this natural process.

Topic concerns: fuel treatments, community wildfire protection plans, mitigation, fire suppression, reporting, solutions, and trainings. Fires are larger and more frequent so there is a need for change: Developed COVID Response Modules CRM Thanks to federal, state, local agencies and their collaborations with our counties!

The 2020 Census Count is Complete!

On behalf of NMC, we want to give a huge shout out to all 33 counties for your persistence and perseverance in putting yourselves out there, pivoting your strategy at a moments notice over and over as the Census Bureau changed direction, overcoming obstacles with the coronavirus, lack of internet services/Wi-Fi, etc., and creating clever outreach opportunities with favorable outcomes to engage your community and convince them to complete their census.

The final self-response rate was 68.7% with a goal of 66% but in our minds, all 33 counties are winners! The collaboration with the state, counties, tribes/parishes, and contractors was amazing. Counties matter and you did it!!!
