NM Counties is one of several community supporters of this program that agree this program will have a positive impact on the community. Santa Fe County Sheriff’s Office, to implement the ABLE Project.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters, there is a risk that the police will respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

NMC President Linda Stover attended the NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.

Why We Need to Transform the 911 System
Public health, justice, and safety suffer when we reflexively deploy police to respond to mental health crises, “quality of life” disorders, and other societal ills beyond officers’ training.

As a result, individuals frequently enter the criminal legal system for non-criminal matters.

Many counties were affected by the strong winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Some counties experienced a snow squall, power outages, and much devastation. Taos County declared a state of emergency and Los Alamos County set up a Red Cross shelter.

Our hearts go out to all those affected by this fierce winter storm that crossed New Mexico.

Link to NMC Meetings
Annual Calendar
NM CPM® Advisory Board to discuss county engagement in the program and how to improve or expand the experience with additional curricula. NMC is doing a poll to find out how many county officials, managers, and staff have achieved any of the following certifications from NM EDGE. Please email Susan Mayes, smayes@nmcounties.org, by Thu., Dec. 23. If you are not aware of the NM EDGE County College program, please contact Interim Program Dir. Jeanine Eden, jbednews@nmnm.edu.