Taking it to The MAT

Science Based Treatment to Reduce Recidivism and Change Lives

Wed. June 14, 2023
9:30am-11:30am
San Juan College

Substance use disorder is linked to many social challenges including criminal behavior, unemployment, home insecurity, and conflicts within families. Speakers discuss how Medication for Opioid Disorder (MOUD) or Medication-Assisted Treatment (MAT) helps people recover from substance use/misuse and how one rural NM jail is making a difference.

Did you know that approximately 12,000 homes in New Mexico are currently vacant or abandoned?

With New Mexico Mortgage Finance Authority's Restoring Our Communities (ROC) Program we continue our goal to increase workforce housing throughout the state by providing ROC funds to acquire, rehabilitate, and resell single-family homes that are vacant or abandoned.

To learn more about ROC or any of our other programs, visit us at: www.housingnm.org

Public Comment Open until June 27, 2023

Proposed amendment to the NM Affordable Housing Act rules:

1) Raise the income caps on households AHA donations can benefit and 2) streamline the process by which local governments comply with the AHA.

Webinar STATE OF RAIL SAFETY AND THE POLICY PATH FORWARD

Brenda Moscoso
AVP, Safety Policy & Analysis, Association of American Railroads

Andy Elkins
Director of Hazmat Compliance, Association of American Railroads

Melissa Connolly
AVP, Government Affairs, Association of American Railroads

Rail safety is top of mind for communities across the country. Join GoRail for a discussion around the state of safety on the nation's railroads, including a look at new FRA data and a demonstration of the AskRail mobile app for first responders. As Congress considers rail safety legislation, we'll also discuss the policy path forward for taking a targeted, data-driven approach to rail safety.
