

Welcome Voters!

ACCESSIBLE VOTING MACHINE AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST

Sandoval County Clerk Develops Accessible Voting Program Clerk Anne Brady-Romero and her team helped to develop an accessible voting program to expand access to the ballot box. The clerk's office also produced a video in collaboration with the NM Commission on Deaf and Hard Hearing as well as Disability Rights NM. The ASL video is available at every polling location on a tablet using Robis' Universal Remote.

Please contact Joey Dominguez, Chief Deputy Clerk, jxdominguez@sandovalcountynm.gov or call 505-867-7572, if you would like to utilize any of the print documents or videos for your county. Learn more about ADA compliance.

DEAF OR HARD OF HEARING?

American Sign Language (ASL) Video Guide available upon request.

Please Communicate with the Clerk using your preferred method. Pen and Paper are also at each station. We have pre-filled papers available with the most commonly asked questions regarding verification.

Federal Grants

NACo supports the bipartisan Streamlining Federal Grants Act, introduced last month. The bill would facilitate more straightforward grant application processes for counties.

- Key takeaway: The legislation tasks the Office of Management and Budget with guiding federal agencies towards streamlined grant application processes.
- Support of Counties: The legislation includes a special focus on aiding counties, particularly rural counties, in accessing grant opportunities.
